INTRODUCTION

The Hong Kong Australia Business Association Inc. (HKABA), initiated by the Hong Kong Trade Development Council, was established in 1987 aiming to develop a positive image for Hong Kong and to reinforce economic ties between Hong Kong SAR and Australia. Members are local businessmen with strong Hong Kong connections or interested in doing business with Hong Kong and Hong Kong organization based in Australia.

The Association provides networking opportunities on which strong trading and investment link are built between Hong Kong companies and Australian companies.

It also provides an effective channel of communications for information on economic development and trade opportunities in the Hong Kong SAR.

The HKABA joined the Federation of Hong Kong Business Associations Worldwide in November 2000. The Federation comprises 31 Hong Kong Business associations worldwide with a total of more than 10,000 individual associates.
